Elementary Student of the Month

Sarina Mozader is Munising Baptist School's Elementary Student of the Month! Sarina is in Mrs. Heyrman's sixth grade class. She is the daughter of Dustin and Junko Mozader. Sarina is new to Munising Baptist but she has jumped right in! She is a new member of our LadyCat's Volleyball team, establishing herself as a great server! She is also running for student council in her class. Sarina memorizes her poems quickly and is quick to help her fellow classmates with their studies. She is a hard worker, and her "drive" is contagious. Her favorite subject is math because "There are challenging obstacles, and I can overcome them!" In her free time, she enjoys coloring, drawing, and reading. Awesome job, Sarina!!

Season Totals

Soccer: 9-4 (NLL 8-3)

Volleyball: 2-11 (NLL 2-9)

Volleyball

The Bobcats entered the NLL tournament at Brimley (Hosted by Paradise), as the 5th seed. This meant that our girls and coaches had a bye the first match of the day, wherein they were the line judges and score keepers for the Grand Marais vs. Paradise game.

After our bye, we took on Paradise. The first match started out on an even playing field, but it finished 25-14 for Paradise. The other two games followed suit, sending the Paradise Rockets up the bracket to face off with Maplewood. The co-league champs, Big Bay and Mackinac Island, faced off in a tight tournament final where Big Bay came out victorious. Good job this season, girls!

Athlete Pictures

Rachael Gurski took team and individual photos for our soccer and volleyball teams. If you would like a digital copy of your athlete's pictures for $5, please notify the office and we will be glad to get that to you.
