Midwinter Break

The Northern Lights League Basketball Tournament is on Friday and Saturday, February 14-15. This tournament gives us an opportunity to have a long weekend, so we will take Monday off as well and have a four-day weekend, resuming school on Tuesday the 18th.

Senior Night

On Tuesday the 18th, we will be celebrating our basketball seniors and their parents when we face off against the DC Knights at home. Please come out to celebrate with our seniors and their families.

Alumni Game

We got a preview of what the Basketball Alumni game might look like when we had a little scrimmage night not too long ago. Come on out for a 6pm game on Thursday the 20th to see Bobcats past and present face off.

Tommy's Basketball Updates

Our home game against the Mackinac Island Lakers was a give and take game with the lead switching several times throughout the match. The Lakers eventually won, 64-54.

The Superior Central Cougars hosted the Bobcats on Monday. Our lineup was shortened by the sick and injured, so Marshall helped the team out. The Bobcats started out strong in the first but lost the lead and were not able to catch up, losing 43-62. It was a great game playing a neighbor school, even though they aren't in our league.

Paradise hosted a second away game this season, as make-up for our snowed-out home game. The Bobcats overtook the Rockets early on and kept the lead throughout. Dylan made his 1,000th point with a buzzer-beater 3pt shot just before halftime. The Bobcats won 73-50.

Congratulations, Dylan!
