Munising Baptist is pleased to announce Myla Mosier as the Elementary Student of the Month! Myla is in Mrs. MacArthur's 1st grade class and is the daughter of Brett & Savana Mosier. This is Myla's first year at MBS and she has been a blessing to the MBS family! Her enthusiastic attitude to learn has made her enjoyable to have in the classroom & she is encouraging to her classmates. Myla is always willing to jump right in to help anyone with any task that needs attention. Her favorite subject in school is when she gets to do any work on the whiteboard. ## Basketball Updates

This week has been a full one for Bobcat Basketball. On Monday, the Bobcats faced down the Black Bears from Maplewood Baptist. It was an intense game full of good competition, with the Bobcats pulling a win in overtime play.

On Tuesday, the Bobcats travelled to Hannahville, where they tried their hardest, but the Soaring Eagles went for a “most 3’s in a game” state record, apparently succeeding.

Yesterday, the Bobcats travelled to Mackinac Island to take on the Lakers. The Bobcats led the first quarter but slowly fell behind, dropping the game. The Lakers are scheduled to play us at home tonight.
